PLART

PLASTIC ART FABRIC WORKSHOP

with Pam Bell

📅 Saturday, May 17, 2025

🕒 10:30-12:30 EST

📍 314 W. 9th Street, Ferdinand, IN

Discover the creative potential of upcycled plastic with artist Pam Bell! You'll learn how to make Plart: a durable, fused fabric made from everyday plastic that would usually be destined for a landfill. This eco-friendly material can be turned into functional or decorative items like tote bags, wall hangings, woven art, and more.

You'll create your own custom piece of Plart fabric and explore fun, simple ways to use it. You'll also have the option to finish your creation as a flag or banner using grommets. A variety of samples will be on hand to inspire your creativity!

Class fee: $78 (includes supplies)

Advance registration required. To reserve your spot, visit our website at traditionalartstoday.org, call us at (812) 998-2487, or visit us in Ferdinand.

Activities are made possible in part by the Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana, the Indiana Arts Commission, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

We value inclusion and access for all participants. This class is wheelchair accessible and we are pleased to provide additional reasonable accommodations. Please contact Alexianna at alexi@traditionalartstoday.org to make a reasonable accommodation request. Requests must be submitted 2 weeks in advance of class.
